

2023 Annual Reading Challenge

A book featuring a library or book store _____

A book you've seen someone reading in a public space _____

A book from a villain's perspective _____

A book you said you would never read _____

The #1 book listed on the NYT Best Sellers list the day you come into the library _____

A book about a place on your travel bucket list _____

A book set during, or about, the Civil Rights Movement _____

A book set at a boarding school or university _____

A book written by a comedian _____

A book with a friends to lovers romance _____

A vintage girl's novel _____

A book set prior to 1923 _____

A historical novel about a person, then read a biography about that same person (counts as 2 books) _____

A book you downloaded from the Southwest Michigan Digital Library _____

A book that has a place in the title (imaginary or real) _____

A book with a dual timeline _____

A book set in a European Country _____

A book of the ancient world _____

A novel in verse _____

A fairy tale retelling _____

A book in which the hero hates the heroine _____

A book set during a holiday other than Christmas _____

A book with a protagonist who has your occupation _____

A book made into a stage play or musical _____

A book involving a road trip _____

Rules:

- Complete 15 of the 25 challenges within 2023
- You may count one book for multiple challenges, but the book must have been read in 2023.
- Write the title of the book on the line next to the challenge you are completing.
- Return completed sheet to the Library to be entered in to a drawing.
- December 31, 2023 is the last day to return your challenge sheet.
- You may track your challenges online at :