

OCEANS OF POSSIBILITIES

ADULT SUMMER READING PROGRAM

READING CHALLENGE

JUNE 20-AUGUST 13: THE POSSIBILITIES OF JOY & KNOWLEDGE

Keep track of the number of books you read over the summer and win prizes! After your first FIVE books, choose a free book. The top THREE readers who read the most books will win the grand prizes! Get your reading logs in-person at the library or via our website.

EVENTS

WED. JUNE 22 6-7PM: THE POSSIBILITY OF EMBRACING NATURE

Seashell Succulent Planter Craft—Bring nature indoors this summer! An attractive shell will hold your choice of beautiful succulent(s). Class size limited. Register in-person or online by 6/17.

THURS. JULY 14 2-4PM: THE POSSIBILITIES FROM TRAGEDY

Soul Surfer Showing—We will view the movie about the teen surfer who lost her arm to a shark and briefly discuss the movie's themes following. ALL AGES (Rated PG).

THURS. JULY 21 2-3PM: THE POSSIBILITY OF PLAY

Ocean Bingo—Have some fun playing bingo with ocean creatures instead of numbers! Every winner will get to choose from the prize table. Class size limited. Register in-person or online by 7/19.

DIY & FYI

JUNE 20-AUGUST 13: THE POSSIBILITY OF GREENER LIVING

Learn to make cleaning and household products from everyday items that do less harm to our planet! Pick up recipes for DIY products, as well as a list of harmful chemicals.